Adult and Teen Challenge

Western Michigan Adult & Teen Challenge offers a 12–13 month Christ-centered residential program for adults overcoming addiction and life-controlling struggles. Through daily classes, work-study, chapel, mentorship, and Community life, students rebuild their lives on a biblical foundation. Grounded in six core values — God's word, prayer, discipleship, unity, worship, and gratitude — men and women find freedom, healing, and lasting purpose in Christ.

To raise awareness and support, to testify to God's glory and power to rescue people from darkness and despair, to proclaim the goodness of God and the freedom found in His truth, Adult & Teen challenge will visit the Lake City EPC on Sunday June 14, 6 pm, for an outdoor worship with a small choir of women who are rejoicing in their changed lives. If you would like more information about this topic, please contact Pastor Gregory at 231-942-1249 or email at gjdbois@hotmail.com.
